In Re: Constitutionality of Resolution of General Conference Relating to the So-called Sit-in Demonstrations

DIGEST OF DECISION

The action of the 1960 General Conference in adopting the resolution relating to the so-called sit-in demonstrations was not unconstitutional.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On May 7, 1960 at the General Conference held in Denver, Colorado, there was published in the Daily Christian Advocate, Report No. 26 of the Committee on State of the Church on the subject of "Human Rights." In this report, appearing as calendar number 279 on page 529 of the Daily Christian Advocate, the Committee recommended the adoption of the following memorial:

"We regret that many citizens of our country are denied basic human rights. The recent wave of sit-in demonstrations and picketing at lunch counters has reminded us of such denials.

"We commend participating students for the dignified, non-violent manner in which they have conducted themselves. We further commend the good professional performance of police forces which have prevented chaos in those cities where the demonstrations have occurred. Should such demonstrations continue, we hope they will be carried out in a similar manner. Demonstrations must be seen as a means of awakening community conscience and not as a goal in themselves. Economic sanctions of any kind should be viewed as a last resort when attempts at negotiation fail.

"Students should be free to exercise their personal Christian responsibilities. Methodist institutions should not penalize students who do so.

"All of us must recognize that the dimensions of social change are tremendous. We view the present action by students as a challenge to community responsibility—a challenge to accept Negroes in their respective communities on terms of dignity."

On May 9th a motion was made for the adoption of the resolution (page 629—Daily Christian Advocate), and after some discussion the motion to adopt the resolution was carried (page 632—Daily Christian Advocate).

Thereafter, a motion was made to appeal to the Judicial Council the constitutionality of the resolution thus adopted. The motion was made by John A. Dickson, Jr., of the Louisiana Conference in the South Central Jurisdiction in the following language:

"Mr. Chairman, my point of privilege is that I wish to move this Conference appeal according to the Discipline, Paragraph 904, to the Judicial Council the constitutionality of legislation passed this morning bearing calendar No. 279. I so move. I would like, Mr. Chairman, to point out the basis of the appeal briefly and I do not wish to argue it. The basis of the appeal lies in the Constitution of the Church under restrictive rules, Paragraph 9 of the Discipline.

"The General Conference shall not revoke, alter or change our Articles of Religion or establish any new standards or rules of doctrine contrary. . . .

"I read from the Articles of Religion, Paragraph 87 of the Discipline, 'It is the duty of all Christians, and especially of all Christian ministers, to observe and obey laws and commands of the governing or supreme authority of the country of which they are citizens or in which they reside'; and Paragraph 83 which has to do with the same matter."

The motion to appeal was adopted by a vote of more than one-fifth of the members of the General Conference.

Jurisdiction

We have jurisdiction under Subparagraph 1 of Article II of Division Four of the Constitution of The Methodist Church designated as Paragraph 43 of the 1960 Discipline, which provides that the Judicial Council has authority to determine the constitutionality of any act of the General Conference upon an appeal of one-fifth of the members of General Conference, and the provisions of Subparagraph 1 of Paragraph 904 of the 1960 Discipline containing similar provisions.

Analysis

The sole question raised on this appeal is whether the act of the General Conference in adopting the resolution is in violation of the Constitution of the Church and, particularly, in violation of the first restrictive rule contained therein. This rule is a part of Section II of Division Two of the Constitution, is codified as Subparagraph 1 of Paragraph 9 of the 1960 Discipline, and is as follows:

"The General Conference shall not revoke, alter or change our Articles of Religion or establish any new standards or rules of doctrine contrary to our present existing and established standards of doctrine."

It is suggested on this appeal that the act of the General Conference either revokes, alters or changes, or is in violation of Paragraph 87 of the 1960 Discipline, which is as follows:

"It is the duty of all Christians, and especially all Christian ministers, to observe and obey the laws and commands of the governing or supreme authority of the country of which they are citizens or subjects or in which they reside and to use all laudable means to encourage and enjoin obedience to the powers that be."

It has been held by the Judicial Council in a carefully considered opinion (Decision No. 41, April 24, 1947), that the language of Paragraph 87, above quoted, is a legislative but not a constitutional part of the Articles of Religion.

Article of Religion Number XXIII, codified as Paragraph 83, 1960 Discipline, mentioned in the motion to appeal, is as follows:

"The President, the Congress, the general assemblies, the governors, and the councils of states as the delegates of the people, are the rulers of the United States of America, according to the division of power made to them by the Constitution of the United States and by the constitutions of their respective states. And the said states are a sovereign and independent nation, and ought not to be subject to any foreign jurisdiction."

While the adoption of the resolution was an "act" of the General Conference, it is not in any sense a "legislative act" since it does not add anything to, nor does it alter, change or revoke the Articles of Religion or any part of the law of the Church, nor does it establish any new standards or rules of doctrine. It does not, therefore, as suggested, violate the restrictive rule contained in the Constitution and codified as Paragraph 9 of the Discipline.

It is clear that the questioned resolution does not violate the provisions of Article of Religion XXIII, codified as Paragraph 83, of the Discipline. The language of the resolution does not relate in any manner to the subject matter of that article.

Because the language of Paragraph 87 of the Discipline is a legislative enactment and not a part of the Constitution, it is immaterial for the purpose of this appeal whether the questioned resolution contravenes its provisions. The only question before us is the constitutionality of the act of the General Conference in adopting the resolution.

We, therefore, do not decide the question as to whether the resolution either directly or by innuendo advocates or commends disobedience to the laws and commands of the governing or supreme authority of the country of which the sit-in demonstrators are citizens.

Decision

The act of the General Conference in adopting the resolution relating to the so-called sit-in demonstrations was not a legislative act and the resolution does not revoke, alter or change the Articles of Religion of the Church, nor does it establish any new standards or rules of doctrine. It is, therefore, not in violation of that part of the Constitution of the Church contained in Paragraph 9 of the 1960 Discipline.

Since Paragraph 87 of the Discipline is not a part of the Constitution of the Church, it follows that the language of the resolution does not violate the Constitution of the Church.

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that the resolution of the General Conference is not in violation of the Constitution and that the act of the General Conference in adopting it was not unconstitutional.

In Re: Request of General Conference for Opinion Concerning Procedure Regarding Consecration and Induction of Bishops

DIGEST OF DECISION

Under the existing constitutional and legislative provisions for declaratory decisions, the Judicial Council has no authority to render a declaratory decision on request of the General Conference to interpret the meaning of the language in the Constitution or the constitutionality of possible future legislation.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On May 7, 1960 (Daily Christian Advocate, General Conference of 1960, p. 627) the General Conference adopted Report No. 15 of the Committee on Conferences, (Daily Christian Advocate, General Conference of 1960, p. 448) referring Memorial 2266 to the Judicial Council. This Memorial requested that "the Discipline provisions regarding the consecration and induction into office of bishops be reviewed and, if necessary, be clarified."

Paragraphs 20 and 35 of the Discipline, being Division Two, Section VI (1) and Division Three, Article II of the Constitution, are cited with their respective provisions for induction into the episcopacy in Central Conferences and for the consecration of bishops in both Jurisdictional and Central Conferences. The memorial in its concluding paragraph, asks for specific clarification as follows:

"If the Report of the Commission for Study and Action on Jurisdictional System is adopted, it might be well to have clarification. Could an Elder who has been elected a bishop be 'inducted into office' by the electing Jurisdictional Conference or Central Conference and postpone his 'consecration' until the next ensuing session of the General Conference? Or would it be essential that he be consecrated first, before being 'inducted into office'?"

Jurisdiction

The analysis sets forth the reasons the Judicial Council does not have jurisdiction in this case.

Analysis

The action of the General Conference is in the nature of a request for a declaratory decision "as to the meaning, application and effect of" portions of the Constitution of the Church contained in Paragraphs 20 and 35 of the 1960 Discipline.

The Judicial Council has been authorized to receive appeals from the General Conference, under two sets of circumstances: 1. The Judicial Council has constitutional power "to determine the constitutionality of any act of the General Conference upon an appeal of . . . one-fifth the members of the General Conference." (Paragraph 43 (1) of the 1960 Discipline) ; 2. Acting under Paragraph 43 (5) of the 1960 Discipline the General Conference has empowered the Judicial Council "to pass upon the constitutionality of any proposed legislation (emphasis supplied) when such declaratory decision is requested by the General Conference. . . ." Paragraph 904 (2) of the 1960 Discipline.

These provisions allow only for requests concerning the constitutionality of legislation proposed or passed by the General Conference. There is no indication that any legislation, which involved the two cited paragraphs, had been enacted or was being proposed by the General Conference of 1960. The statement that a future General Conference might wish to pass legislation involving the interpretation and application of the constitutional paragraphs in question is hypothetical and does not afford sufficient basis for this Council to accept jurisdiction under the powers granted in Paragraphs 43 (1) and 904 (2) of the 1960 Discipline.

Paragraph 914 of the 1960 Discipline does provide that "when any paragraph or paragraphs of the Discipline seem to be of doubtful meaning, or application, the Judicial Council, on petition as hereinafter provided, shall have jurisdiction to make a ruling in the nature of a declaratory decision as to the constitutionality, meaning, application, and effect of such act, legislation or paragraph or paragraphs of the Discipline." If this provision should be construed to include in "paragraph or paragraphs of the Discipline" the Constitution of the Church, the Judicial Council might then on proper appeal interpret the two paragraphs (20 and 35). But in the enactment of Paragraph 914 the General Conference did not include itself among the bodies entitled to request such declaratory decisions.

Decision

Under the existing constitutional and legislative provisions for declaratory decisions the Judicial Council is without authority to take jurisdiction in this request.

In Re: The Right of a Conference Board of Missions (and Church Extension) to Purchase and Hold Property

DIGEST OF DECISION

A Board of Missions (and Church Extension) of an Annual Conference of The Methodist Church may purchase and hold property.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At the June, 1960, session of the Oregon Annual Conference of The Methodist Church there was a discussion as to the right of the Conference Board of Missions and Church Extension to purchase and hold property. It was contended upon behalf of the Board of Trustees of the Conference that it was the only body in the Annual Conference "allowed to hold property." Thereupon, the Conference petitioned the Judicial Council to determine "the right of the (Annual Conference) Board of Missions to hold property. . . ." The record before us discloses that the Board of Missions and Church Extension of the Oregon Annual Conference of The Methodist Church is a registered corporation.

Jurisdiction

We construe the request that comes to us from the Oregon Annual Conference as a petition for a declaratory decision on the question as to whether or not the incorporated Board of Missions and Church Extension of the Oregon Annual Conference may purchase and hold property. We have jurisdiction to receive this petition and render a decision thereupon under Paragraph 914, Section 8, of the 1960 Discipline.

Analysis

Paragraphs 1295-1307 of the 1960 Discipline provide for Annual Conference Boards of Missions, outline the duties of such Boards and state in general fashion the powers of such Boards.

It is evident from the disciplinary provisions that the Board of Missions of an Annual Conference is a creature of the Conference and therefore subject to it. "The work of the board shall be subject to the approval of the Annual Conference." (Paragraph 1303 (2) of the 1960 Discipline.)

Such boards have the right, among other things, to administer such funds as come into their possession for church extension and to lend or donate any part thereof. These broad grants of power strongly imply, if they do not specifically grant to such boards the right to receive and hold property, whether that property be real, personal, or intangible.

We do not believe that the disciplinary provisions providing for Annual Conference Boards of Trustees require that all property owned by an Annual Conference or by any of its boards or agencies must be titled in the name of such Board of Trustees. As a matter of fact the section of the Discipline providing for Boards of Trustees of Annual Conferences appears to recognize that other conference agencies may hold property for it provides that "said corporation shall receive, collect and hold in trust for the benefit of the Annual Conference any and all donations . . . that may be given, devised, bequeathed or conveyed to the said board or to the Annual Conference as such . . ." (Emphasis added.) Paragraph 711 (2) of the 1960 Discipline. It is not provided that gifts, donations, etc., made to the other boards and agencies of the Annual Conference shall be handled by or taken in the name of the Board of Trustees of the Annual Conference.

Decision

It is, therefore, our decision that an Annual Conference Board of Missions, or an Annual Conference Board of Missions and Church Extension, may own property and take title thereto in its own name, if incorporated, and if not incorporated, in the name of trustees elected by it.

In Re: Ruling of Bishop Hazen G. Werner in the North-East Ohio Conference as to the Right of the Annual Conference to Enact a Compulsory Apportionment to the Ministerial Members for the Support of the Minimum Salary Plan

DIGEST OF DECISION

An Annual Conference has no right to enact a compulsory apportionment to the ministerial members of the Annual Conference for the support of the Minimum Salary Plan or Fund of the Annual Conference.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The North-East Ohio Conference made the following request to the Bishop for a ruling on a point of law:

"Does an Annual Conference have the right to enact a compulsory apportionment to the ministerial members of the Annual Conference for the support of the Minimum Salary Plan or Fund of the Annual Conference?"

"Ruling of the Bishop on Point of law. . . . Bishop Werner ruled that the Annual Conference has a right to enact an apportionment upon the ministers for minimum salary support. He cited Paragraph 634 of the 1956 Discipline."

Jurisdiction

Under clause No. 3 of Paragraph 43 of the Constitution this ruling is properly before the Judicial Council.

Analysis

Paragraph 22 of the 1960 Discipline provides in part:

"The Annual Conference is the basic body in the church, and as such shall have reserved to it . . . such other rights as have not been delegated to the General Conference. . . ."

Paragraph 634 of the 1960 Discipline states:

"The Annual Conference may make rules to govern its own procedure; provided that no Annual Conference shall make any rule contrary to the Constitution or to the powers granted it by the General Conference. An Annual Conference cannot financially obligate the Methodist Church or an organizational unit thereof except the Annual Conference itself."

Paragraph 826 of the 1960 Discipline provides in part:

"Minimum Salaries—1. Each Annual Conference shall adopt a schedule of minimum salaries for pastors and shall create a Commission on Minimum Salaries composed of ministers and laymen to administer it. . . ."

3. "The Commission on Minimum Salaries shall present its estimate of the amount required to comply with the schedule of minimum salaries for the pastors, as adopted by the Conference, to the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance, which shall apportion the amount as an item of ministerial support to the districts or charges as the Conference may direct."

Paragraph 822 of the 1960 Discipline provides in part:

"Each Annual Conference shall determine what plan and method shall be used in distributing the apportionments to its several districts and charges . . . for the minimum salary fund. . . ."

From the above quoted portions of the Discipline, it is clear that the Annual Conference is the basic body in the Church, and as such, it does have definite rights and privileges. Where, however, the Discipline sets forth certain mandatory requirements and outlines the procedure whereby its requirements shall be met, the Annual Conference no longer has freedom to set up its own independent method of attaining a similar goal.

In this case, the Discipline provides that each Annual Conference shall adopt a schedule of minimum salaries and shall create a Commission on Minimum Salaries. It likewise provides that the Commission shall apportion the required amount as an item of ministerial support to the districts or charges, and that the Annual Conference shall determine the plan and method used in distributing the apportionments to the districts and charges.

A definite mandatory procedure has been set forth in the

Discipline as a means of providing for minimum salaries. (See Decision No. 90 of the Judicial Council.)

It is clear that the Annual Conference cannot set up a different method or a supplemental method by enacting a compulsory apportionment or an apportionment on the ministerial members of the Annual Conference or upon the ministers for the support of the Minimum Salary Plan.

Any apportionment is to be made on the districts and/or the charges, and not upon the ministerial members of the Annual Conference.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that the ruling of Bishop Werner was not correct and that an Annual Conference cannot properly enact a compulsory apportionment to the ministerial members of the Annual Conference for the support of the Minimum Salary Plan or Fund of the Annual Conference.

In Re: Ruling of Bishop Nolan B. Harmon Relative to the Authority of the Western North Carolina Conference to Grant Annuities on an Adjusted Basis to Conference Members Related to Approved Institutions That Have Pension Plans

An Annual Conference has authority to grant annuities on an adjusted basis to Conference members related to institutions that are approved by the Annual Conference for annuity responsibility and having their own pension plans.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The following letter was received by the Secretary of the Judicial Council:

"I am enclosing a request for a decision from the Judicial Council which is being forwarded by the Western North Carolina Conference. The enclosure is a copy of the proceedings leading up to and the decision of Bishop Nolan B. Harmon on the matter contained therein. When our 1960 Journal comes from the press this will be found on pages 100-102. Bishop Harmon's decision was rendered June 11, 1960.

Fraternally,
/s/ Charles D. White

COPY OF THE ENCLOSURE

EPISCOPAL DECISION: A. G. Lackey of the Board of Pensions presented the following:

"Bishop Harmon and members of the Western North Carolina Conference: The Board of Pensions in answer to Minute Question 15, 'What Methodist Institutions or organizations are approved by the Conference for annuity responsibility?' answered 'Brevard College, Methodist Home, Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital, North Carolina Advocate, Lake Junaluska Assembly, Children's Home, and Greensboro College, High Point College, Pfeiffer College on an adjusted basis,' the adjusted basis being the difference between the college pension plan and the Conference annuity. The legality of paying the above named schools on an adjusted basis has been questioned. The Annual Conference, Saturday morning, June 11, 1960, directed the Board of Pensions to ask the bishop to rule on the authority of the Conference to grant an annuity on an adjusted basis to Conference members serving institutions that have a pension plan.

A study committee in 1956 recommended to the conference that pensions be granted these men based on paragraph 1618, section 9, page 444 of the 1956 Discipline. (On recommendation of the Conference Board of Pensions, the Annual Conference shall determine the Methodist institutions and organizations related to its service in which shall be approved for annuity responsibility of the Conference; provided, however, that such list shall be printed in the Conference Journal under the Disciplinary question 'What Methodist institutions or organizations are approved by the conference for annuity responsibility?')

Paragraph 1618-3a seems to contradict the paragraph referred to (the following years of service on trial or in the effective relation shall not be approved as a basis of annuity claim (a) Years for which a pension, or any other form of compensation or "deferred salary," is received from any source other than the Annual Conference.)

Bishop Harmon then rendered the following decision:

EPISCOPAL DECISION REGARDING THE LEGALITY OF THE WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE'S ACTION ON ONE PHASE OF ITS PENSION PLAN

Having been asked formally by the Western North Carolina Conference at its session on the morning of June 11, 1960, to rule on a question of possible conflict between paragraph 1618, Section 9 of the 1956 Discipline: and paragraph 1618-3a of the same Discipline, and whether or not the actions and attitudes of the Western North Carolina Conference in this matter (hereafter to be described) as invalid, it is my judgment that they are not. For the following reasons:

Paragraph 1618, section 9, is as follows:

On recommendation of the Conference Board of Pensions, the Annual Conference shall determine the Methodist institutions and organizations related to it service in which shall be approved for annuity responsibility of the conference; provided however, that such list shall be printed in the Conference Journal under the Disciplinary question "What Methodist institutions or organizations are approved by the conference for annuity responsibility?"

Pursuant to this, the Board of Pensions of the Western North Carolina Conference in answer to question 15, "What Methodist institutions or organizations are approved by the conference for annuity responsibility?" answered as follows in the 1960 Conference Minutes: "Brevard College, Methodist Home, Hugh Chatham Hospital, "North Carolina Christian Advocate," Lake Junaluska Assembly, Children's Home, and Greensboro College, High Point College, Pfeiffer College on an adjusted basis."

The legality of paying persons related to the above schools on an adjusted basis has been questioned because of paragraph 1618-3a of the same 1956 Discipline which says, "The following years of service on trial or in the effective relation shall not be approved as a basis of annuity claim; (a) years for which a pension or other form of compensation or 'Referred Salary' is received from any other source than the annual conference."

Since there is an apparent contradiction here between these two sections of paragraph 1618 cited, I decide that the controlling authority should be given to 1618 section 9 because:

(1) It is the more definite and specific and spells out exactly the procedure that an annual conference may follow, and that in fact is followed by the Western North Carolina Conference. In this case the specific outranks the general in its application and is the exact course the Western North Carolina Conference follows.

(2) As the annual conference is the basic body in the church, and as paragraph 1618.9 admits that a conference shall determine those organizations which can be related to it for annuity service; and since the Western North Carolina Conference acting under its basic rights and in line with this provision, 1618.9 does each year review and approve for annuity responsibility such organizations as it decides are worthy of the same, it is my judgment and opinion that the course the Western North Carolina Conference is following in this regard is valid in every way; and that whatever weight may be given to paragraph 1618, 3a, this is not sufficient to overturn the right of the Conference to proceed as it is doing.

Given over my signature in open conference on June 11 and made part of the annual conference record.

Jurisdiction

This appeal is properly before the Judicial Council under the provision of Paragraph 43, Article II, Section 2 of the Constitution.

Analysis

The question presented by this appeal is in regard to the legality of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference supplementing the pension program of institutions which it has approved for annuity responsibility, to the extent that Conference members related to these institutions may be eligible to receive annuities equivalent to the approved annuity rate of the Annual Conference.

Paragraph 1616 of the 1960 Discipline states: "The Annual Conference shall be the sole judge of the admissibility and validity of annuity claims and shall be fully competent to determine all payments, disallowances and deductions thereunder, subject to the specific regulations relating thereto contained in the Discipline."

With reference to the pension claim of ministers who serve under appointment to Methodist institutions the Discipline states as follows:

Par. 1618 (Section 9) "On recommendation of the Conference Board of Pensions, the Annual Conference shall determine the Methodist institutions and organizations related to it service in which shall be approved for annuity responsibility of the Conference. . . ."

The amount of the apportionments to be paid by the institution are determined by the Annual Conference:

Paragraph 1623 (Section 7a) "An Annual Conference which accepts annuity responsibility in any conference year for service rendered by a member thereof under special appointment to an institution, organization or agency . . . may make an apportionment to such institution . . . served for such amount as the conference may determine; provided, however, that such apportionment shall not exceed an amount equivalent to twelve times the annuity rate which has been adopted for that conference year."

The foregoing paragraphs of the Discipline clearly define it as being within the power of the Annual Conference to administer its pension program subject to the provisions of the Discipline. There is nothing in the Discipline which denies the Annual Conference the right to adjust apportionments to institutions approved for annuity responsibility or to establish schedules of annuity payment to supplement the pension plan of such institutions with annuity grants from the Annual Conference.

Paragraph 634 "The Annual Conference may make rules to govern its own procedure; provided that no Annual Conference shall make any rule contrary to the Constitution or to the powers granted it by the General Conference."

The legal authority of an Annual Conference to set up a program granting annuities on an adjusted basis as defined by the Western North Carolina Conference in this case is not prohibited by the provisions of the Discipline.

It is our view that Paragraph 1618 is not a prohibition or limitation upon the power of the Annual Conference. This section contains a series of definitions on which the individual claimant is entitled to have his services computed for pension purposes.

Nothing contained in Paragraph 1618 places any limitation on the Annual Conference in the exercise of its power and discretion to wholly or partially assist the institution, organization or agency for which it accepts responsibility, to establish a uniform pension fund in keeping with the standards established for the Annual Conference. The Board or agency responsible for administrating a partial pension plan would be required to take into consideration the definitions contained in Paragraph 1618 in determining the individual claimant's rights and benefits.

The Judicial Council construes Paragraph 1627 of the 1960 Discipline to be a safeguard in such cases and interprets it as the rule which is to be applied in situations where some other form of compensation may cause an annuitant's claim to be questioned. Furthermore Paragraph 1627 is strictly in harmony with the spirit of the pension legislation already quoted in that it gives to the Annual Conference the right to determine each case on its merits.

Paragraph 1627 ". . . the annuity claim of any conference claimant may be disallowed, in whole or in part, by three-fourths vote of the ministers of the Annual Conference, present and voting, for any of the following causes:

(a) Receipt of a pension or other periodical income from an individual church, or from other sources, which may be presumed to cover and adequately compensate for certain years of service included in the claim." (Emphases added.)

It is our conclusion that an Annual Conference may, therefore, approve institutions for annuity responsibility on an adjusted basis and compute its annuity payments on the basis of its appraisal of the adequacy or inadequacy of the pension rate of the institution involved.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that an Annual Conference, through its pension system, may legally pay annuities on an adjusted basis to Conference members related to institutions that are approved by the conference for annuity responsibility and having their own pension plans. Accordingly the ruling of Bishop Nolan B. Harmon is hereby affirmed.

Dissenting Opinion
Judicial Council Decision No. 180

I regret that I must respectfully dissent from the decision of my colleagues in this case. Since it involves some of the basic regulations in accordance with which the pension program of the Church operates, I am impelled to indicate the reasons for my dissent.

The ruling of Bishop Harmon that annuities may be granted by an Annual Conference on a partial or adjusted basis is founded on two assumptions, both of which I respectfully hold are incorrect.

The first assumption is that Paragraphs 1618 (9) and 1618 (3a) of the 1956 Discipline are in conflict. Paragraph 1618 (9) provides that an Annual Conference may accept annuity responsibility for certain of its members who are employed by Methodist institutions related to the Annual Conference and printed in the Annual Conference Journal. Paragraph 1623 (7a) provides that the Annual Conference may make an apportionment on the institution, whose employee is accepted by the Annual Conference for annuity responsibility, in any amount determined by the Annual Conference not to exceed 12 times the annuity rate of the Conference for a particular year. When this provision is taken advantage of, the person, for whom annuity responsibility is accepted by the Annual Conference, will receive for each year of approved service the full annuity rate of the Conference. He will then be listed in the Annual Conference Journal "with annuity claim upon this Annual Conference" as provided for in Paragraph 1618 (4) of the 1960 Discipline. This provision is not compulsory, however, so that a member of an Annual Conference serving such an institution may accept the pension provided by the institution he is serving, in which case he would be listed in the Annual Conference Journal "without annuity claim upon this Annual Conference" as provided for service either from the Annual Conference or from the institution he is serving and be listed accordingly in the official journal of the Annual Conference.

Paragraph 1618 (3) reads in part:

> "The following years of service on trial or in the effective relation shall not be approved as a basis of annuity claim:
> (a) "Years for which a pension or other form of compensation or 'deferred salary' is received from any source other than the Annual Conference." (Emphasis added.)

This clearly and specifically prevents a member of an Annual Conference from receiving an annuity from the Annual Conference if he is receiving a pension for the same year of service from any other source.

There is no conflict between these two Paragraphs, 1618 (9) and 1618 (3a). The former provides that a member of an Annual Conference may receive a pension from either the Annual Conference or from the institution he is serving, and it must be indicated in the Annual Conference Journal whether or not he is to receive it from the Annual Conference. There is no provision in Paragraph 1618 (4) for a listing which would indicate that he receives a partial or adjusted pension from the Annual Conference. The latter provides that he cannot receive a pension from both for the same year of service. There is no mention anywhere in the Discipline of a partial rate or adjusted rate for a year of approved service. On the contrary, Paragraph 1619 defines the annuity claim of a retired minister as "an amount equivalent to the total of his years of approved service multiplied by the annuity rate. . . ." This positive regulation defining the method of calculating the pension of a member of an Annual Conference, nullifies the argument in the majority decision that because the Discipline does not prohibit an adjusted pension, it is therefore legal.

The second assumption in Bishop Harmon's ruling that Paragraph 1618 (9) is "more definite and specific and spells out exactly the procedure that an Annual Conference may follow" and therefore should have precedence over 1618 (3a) is equally incorrect. A careful reading of both paragraphs will indicate that both of them are "definite and specific" and that each "spells out exactly the procedure an Annual Conference may follow" with respect to the aspect of the regulations treated by each. Each, therefore, is equally authoritative, valid and binding upon an Annual Conference.

In the majority decision, attention is called to the powers of an Annual Conference and Paragraph 1616 of the 1960 Discipline is cited indicating its powers especially with respect to pension matters. The Paragraph reads as follows:

"The Annual Conference shall be the sole judge of the admissibility and validity of annuity claims and shall be fully competent to determine all payments, disallowances, and deductions thereunder, subject to the specific regulations relating thereto contained in the Discipline."

The most important part of this Paragraph in connection with the matter under consideration is the last clause, ". . . subject to the specific regulations relating thereto contained in the Discipline." (Emphasis added.)

The 1960 Discipline has 22 pages of specific regulations, called the Pension Code, which set forth in great detail the regulations governing the operation of the pension program of the Church. Included in these specific regulations are Paragraphs 1618 (3a) prohibiting a member of an Annual Conference from receiving two pensions for the same year of service, and Paragraph 1619 defining precisely what is the annuity claim of a retired minister. These specific regulations enacted by the General Conference and contained in the Discipline restrict the powers of an Annual Conference in the administration of the pension program to the degree that Annual Conference regulations must conform to them and that no regulations can be adopted by an Annual Conference which are contrary thereto. In the light of this, it is difficult to understand the statement contained in the majority decision, "It is our view that Paragraph 1618 is not a prohibition or limitation upon the power of the Annual Conference. This section contains a series of definitions on which the individual claimant is entitled to have his service computed for pension purposes." (Emphasis added.)

Paragraph 1627 is quoted in the majority decision as supporting the principle involved in a partial or adjusted annuity. It is to be noted that this Paragraph has to do solely with the disallowance and not with the establishment of a claim. It specifies that disallowance cannot be made by a general rule of the Annual Conference. Each case must be heard and adjudicated separately. Action to disallow a claim must be by a three-fourths vote of the Annual Conference, after the claimant has been notified by registered mail three months in advance, with specifications of the cause or causes under which the case will be cited, and after he has had opportunity for a hearing. Furthermore, the Conference Board of Pensions must bring to the Conference in writing a full statement of the case and a record of its vote for or against the recommendation. It is obvious that this is not the regular method by which a claim is established and can hardly be considered as supporting the principle upon which a partial or adjusted annuity can be granted.

For the above reasons, I respectfully dissent from the majority decision which affirms the ruling of Bishop Nolan A. Harmon made in the Western North Carolina Conference on June 11, 1960.

In Re: The Request of the Texas Conference for a Declaratory Decision Whether a Retired Minister Serving a Charge as a Supply Pastor May Be Lawfully Required to Pay a Portion of His Salary to a Fund for Pensions

DIGEST OF DECISION

A retired minister appointed as supply pastor of a charge cannot be required to pay any portion of his salary into any fund for pensions.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The 1959 report of the Texas Conference Board of Pensions (South Central Jurisdiction) recommended:

"That each Church pay an amount equal to 15% of the Pastor's and Associate Pastor's salary to the Conference Board of Pensions, and that each minister, who will receive annuity credit for his year of service, pay 1% of his salary into the fund."

The Conference Board of Pensions interpreted the recommendation to mean that a retired minister who is appointed by the Bishop as pastor of a church must also pay 1% of his salary into the fund, notwithstanding the precise language of the recommendation says:

"and that each minister, who will receive annuity credit for his year of service, pay 1% of his salary into the fund."

C. A. West, Secretary of the Conference, has certified that the Texas Annual Conference at its 1960 session adopted a resolution to request the Judicial Council to render a declaratory decision as to "whether a retired minister serving a charge as a supply may be lawfully required to pay one per cent of his salary to the fund for superannuates."

Jurisdiction

Under Paragraph 914 (8) of the 1960 Discipline the request of the Texas Conference (South Central Jurisdiction) is properly before the Judicial Council.

Analysis

Paragraph 1610 (4) of the 1960 Discipline states in part: ". . . a conference shall have power to require from its ministerial members and approved supply pastors who are appointed with annuity claim on the conference an annual contribution to either its permanent or reserve fund or for current distribution or to a preachers aid society for the benefit of its annuitants. . . ."

The action of the Texas Conference in 1959 adopting the recommendations of its Board of Pensions is clearly within the authorization of Paragraph 1610 (4) requiring as it does only that a "minister, who will receive annuity credit for his year of service, pay 1% of his salary into the fund."

It appears, however, that in the application of this authorization of the Annual Conference and the provisions of Paragraph 1610 (4) of the 1960 Discipline the Texas Conference Board of Pensions has interpreted this authorization to permit a requirement that a retired minister who is appointed by the Bishop, as pastor of a church must also pay 1% of his salary into the fund.

It is clear from Paragraph 1618 (1-4) of the 1960 Discipline that a retired minister may not receive annuity credit for service rendered after retirement, since only years of service rendered while "on trial or in the effective relation in an Annual Conference of the Methodist Church . . . are eligible to be counted for the purpose of determining the annuity claims payable thereon." (Emphasis supplied.)

In conformity with the principle involved in the above cited paragraphs this Council in its analysis of the request adjudicated in Decision No. 165, April 30, 1960, has reasoned that additional service years may not be allowed while a minister is retired.

It would then appear that a minister cannot, while retired, accumulate years of service on his pension record and that an Annual Conference may require pension contributions only from its ministerial members or approved supply pastors who are appointed with annuity claim.

Decision

It is, therefore, the decision of the Judicial Council that a retired minister appointed as a supply pastor cannot be required to pay any percentage of his salary into any funds for pensions.

In Re: Action of the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference with Respect to the Election of a Bishop by the Africa Central Conference and Reassignment of Bishop Newell S. Booth

DIGEST OF DECISION

The action of the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference, with respect to the election of a bishop by the Africa Central Conference and the reassignment of Bishop Newell S. Booth, is unconstitutional insofar as it assumes to delegate authority to its Quadrennial Committee on Episcopacy to determine when a new bishop shall be elected for the Africa Central Conference, and to change the assignment of Bishop Newell S. Booth to the Africa Central Conference made by the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference and to the Elisabethville Area made by the Africa Central Conference.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At the meeting of the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference in Washington, D.C., the following Report No. 2 of the Committee on Episcopacy was adopted on June 16, 1960 (See Daily Christian Advocate, page 45):

"Because of the confusion and uncertainties which exist in the Congo today, we are of the opinion that it is wise for us to share with the Congo the unique abilities of Bishop Newell Booth. On the other hand, we wish to cooperate with the African Central Conference in working out plans under which it may by election provide its own Episcopal supervision. To that end we recommend:

1. That Bishop Newell Booth's assignment to Elisabethville, in the Congo, be continued for the Quadrennium 1960-1964.

2. That the Committee on Episcopacy be authorized at any time during the Quadrennium to take action which would create a vacancy in the Episcopacy of the African Central Conference by (a) Agreeing with the African Central Conference that the African Central Conference elect a third Bishop, as provided in the enabling legislation of the 1960 General Conference or (b) Having Bishop Booth return to the United States for reassignment of duties by the College of Bishops or the Council of Bishops.

3. That if during the Quadrennium the African Central Conference and the Committee on Episcopacy agree to Bishop Booth's return to the United States, the Committee on Episcopacy may in its direction request the call of a Special Session of the Jurisdictional Conference to consider and take action upon reassignment of Bishop Booth.

This leaves open the possibility that if, say in two years, it is advisable to have an election there and Bishop Booth to come home, we could at least consider an establishment of an eighth area and assign Bishop Both to that area if it is our judgment to follow through in that form.

4. That this action be referred to the Judicial Council and if the Judicial Council should find this delegation of authority to the Committee on Episcopacy for any reason invalid, then the Committee on Episcopacy be instructed to keep in touch with the African Central Conference and if at any time the Committee on Episcopacy and the African Central Conference agree that it is advisable that a vacancy in the Episcopacy be created so as to make possible the election of a Bishop either (a) increasing to three the number of Bishops as conditionally authorized by the 1960 General Conference or (b) by having Bishop Booth return to the United States, the Committee on Episcopacy shall ask for the reconvening of the Jurisdictional Conference in order that it may take the appropriate action.

That the Commission on World Service and Finance be asked to make available the funds for a special session of the African Central Conference, a Special Session of the Jurisdictional Conference and one or more meetings of the Committee on Episcopacy, should such meetings or any of them prove to be necessary in order to carry out the contemplated program for Episcopacy Supervision in the Congo."

Subsequently, on June 20, 1960, the following Report No. 9 of the same committee was adopted implementing the provisions of Report No. 2 (See D. C. A., Page 104):

"The General Conference of 1960 gave to the Northeastern Jurisdiction the discretionary power to grant to the Africa Central Conference the right to establish a third Episcopal area and to elect a third bishop. The Africa Central Conference now has five annual conferences divided into two episcopal areas; the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference wishes to exercise its discretion to grant this authority if the membership of Africa Central Conference indicates clearly the desire to have three episcopal areas and three bishops.

The Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference, therefore, gives approval to the election of a third bishop for the Africa Central Conference whenever such desire is evidenced by a two-thirds vote of the Africa Central Conference and (b) a majority vote of at least three of the five annual conferences or a majority vote of at least three of the five annual conference delegates present at a Central Conference meeting.

The enabling legislation contained in Committee on Episcopacy Report No. 2 and adopted by the Jurisdictional Conference shall remain in force."

This action by the Jurisdictional Conference was to implement the Enabling Act adopted by the 1960 General Conference found in Paragraph 2005 (2) of the 1960 Discipline which reads as follows:

"The Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference shall provide residential and presidential supervision within the Africa Central Conference, and is hereby authorized according to the provisions of Paragraphs 8.4, 439 to have one bishop in addition to its membership quota in order to provide for this supervision. The Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference shall have power to delegate to a commission or committee of the Jurisdictional Conference authority during the 1960-64 quadrennium at any time to grant authorization to the Africa Central Conference to elect another bishop, bringing their total to three."

Jurisdiction

This matter is properly before the Judicial Council under authority of Paragraphs 43 (1), which is part of the Constitution, and 905 which give it power

". . . to determine the constitutionality of any act of a Jurisdictional or Central Conference . . . upon the appeal of one-fifth of the members of that Jurisdictional or Central Conference."

Analysis

The question referred to the Judicial Council is whether the action of the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference included in Paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) of Report No. 2 of its Committee on Episcopacy, is constitutional. Since the content of these paragraphs varies, we shall deal with them individually.

Paragraph (1) provides for the reassignment of Bishop Newell S. Booth to Elisabethville in the Congo for the quadrennium 1960-1964. The language of this paragraph was later amended by action of the Jurisdictional Conference (D. C. A., Page 103) to read: "within the African Central Conference" instead of "to Elisabethville in the Congo." It is our opinion that there is no question whatever concerning the power of the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference to take this action.

Paragraph 439 of the 1956 Discipline, after specifying the quota of bishops which a Jurisdiction may have, reads as follows:

". . . provided further that the General Conference may authorize any Jurisdictional Conference to elect one or more bishops beyond the quota herein specified in order to provide Episcopal supervision for mission fields outside the territory of a Jurisdictional Conference."

In Decision No. 84, the Judicial Council declared this provision to be constitutional.

In 1944 the Northeastern Jurisdiction was given authority under the above quoted provision to elect a bishop in addition to its quota for supervision in what was then the Provisional Africa Central Conference and which later became the Africa Central Conference. At the 1944 session of the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference Newell S. Booth was elected a bishop and assigned for Episcopal supervision within the Africa Central Conference. Each succeeding General Conference, including that of 1960 renewed this authorization of the General Conference found in Paragraph 2005 (2), of the 1960 Discipline, is therefore constitutional.

In Paragraph (2) the Committee on Episcopacy, which was later constituted a Quadrennial Committee on Episcopacy, (see D.C.A., Page 103), was authorized at any time during the quadrennium to take action which would create a vacancy in the Episcopacy of the Africa Central Conference in one of two ways:

"(a) by agreeing with the African Central Conference that the African Central Conference elect a third bishop as provided in the enabling legislation of the 1960 General Conference, or

(b) having Bishop Booth returned to the United States for reassignment of duties by the College of Bishops or the Council of Bishops."

Let us look at these two methods by which the Committee on Episcopacy was authorized to create a vacancy in the Episcopacy of the Africa Central Conference.

The first of these provides that the Committee agree with the Africa Central Conference that the Conference elect a third bishop. This would imply that the Committee on Episcopacy of the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference has the authority to determine the conditions upon which the Africa Central Conference might elect a third bishop. This implication is borne out by Report No. 9 of the Committee on Episcopacy of the Northeastern Jurisdiction quoted above which sets forth the conditions which must be met before the Africa Central Conference could elect another bishop.

Paragraph 8 of the Constitution reads in part as follows:

"The General Conference shall have full legislative power over all matters distinctively connectional and in the exercise of said powers shall have authority as follows:

(4) "to provide for the organization, promotion and administration of the work outside the United States of America. . . ."

(10) ". . . to determine the number of bishops that may be elected by the Central Conferences."

The Constitution thus vests in the General Conference alone the power to determine the number of bishops that may be elected by a Central Conference. This authority specifically vested in the General Conference by the Constitution cannot be delegated to a Jurisdictional Conference or a Committee or a Commission thereof. If a Jurisdictional Conference has the authority to determine when and under what conditions a bishop may be elected by a Central Conference, it then has the power to abrogate the will of the General Conference with respect to the number of bishops a Central Conference may elect, and to that degree infringe on the power granted the General Conference by the Constitution. We believe, therefore, that this aspect of the action taken is invalid because that part of the Enabling Act under which it was taken is unconstitutional.

Paragraph 557 reads as follows:

"A Central Conference, when authorized by a specific enabling act of the General Conference, may elect one or more bishops from among the traveling elders of The Methodist Church. The number of bishops to be elected by each Central Conference shall be determined from time to time by the General Conference."

This provides that only when a specific enabling act is passed by the General Conference, a Central Conference can elect a bishop. We hold that the act which delegated to a Jurisdictional Conference or a Committee or Commission thereof authority to grant authorization for the election of a bishop is not a specific enabling act of the General Conference within the meaning of Paragraph 557.

If it is argued that the part of the enabling act of the General Conference, found in Paragraph 2005 (2) of the 1960 Discipline, giving the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conerence authority to provide residential and presidential supervision within the Africa Central Conference constitutes authority for the action indicated in Report No. 2, it should be pointed out that residential and presidential supervision within the Africa Central Conference does not constitute authority to determine whether another bishop shall be elected or whether a bishop shall be reassigned but only that of providing a bishop to supervise the work of the Church within that Central Conference.

The other provision that the Committee be authorized to have Bishop Booth returned to the United States for reassignment of duties by the College of Bishops or the Council of Bishops, likewise assumes authority which the Committee does not have.

Paragraph 526 of the 1960 Discipline, dealing with the Committee on Episcopacy of the Jurisdictional Conference, reads in part:

". . . The Committee shall recommend the assignments of the bishops to their respective residences, for final action by the Jurisdictional Conference. . . ." (Emphasis added.)

Bishop Booth was assigned to the Africa Central Conference for Episcopal supervision by the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference. It is our opinion that the Committee on Episcopacy does not have power to change that assignment.

Paragraph 560 reads as follows:

"A Central Conference in consultation with the bishops of that Central Conference shall fix the episcopal areas and residences and make assignments to them of the bishops who are to reside in that Central Conference. . . ."

Bishop Booth was assigned by the African Central Conference to the Elisabethville area. It is our opinion that the Committee on Episcopacy of the Northeastern Jurisdiction does not have power to change that assignment.

The meaning of Paragraph (3) is not altogether clear. If it means that Bishop Booth's return to the United States for his reassignment here is to be determined by the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference in session, it is our opinion that this would be legal. If, however, his reassignment is determined by action of the Committee on Episcopacy of the Northeastern Jurisdiction, it is our opinion for reasons given above that this would be invalid.

The remaining section of the report deals with matters not specifically referred to the Judicial Council and, therefore, are not considered in this decision.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that the action of the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference in assigning Bishop Newell S. Booth for episcopal supervision within the Africa Central Conference is constitutional and valid.

It is also our decision that the action of the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference in granting authority to its Quadrennial Committee on Episcopacy to determine when the Africa Central Conference may elect a bishop, and to determine that Bishop Newell S. Booth shall be reassigned to another Episcopal area, is invalid because it is based on that part of an enabling act of the General Conference which is unconstitutional.

In Re: Constitutionality of Legislation Adopted by the 1960 General Conference Providing for the Election by the General Conference of the Required Number of Members From each Jurisdiction to the General Board of Pensions

DIGEST OF DECISION

The Constitution of The Methodist Church provides that the required number of members of a General Board from a Jurisdiction shall be chosen by the Jurisdictional Conference itself. Hence, the legislation of the 1960 General Conference providing for the election of such members from the respective jurisdictions to the General Board of Pensions by the General Conference is unconstitutional.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At the session of the General Conference on May 9, 1960, the following was adopted as a part of Paragraph 1602. 1 (Discipline, 1960).

"The required number of members from each Jurisdiction shall be elected quadrennially by the General Conference upon nomination by the College of Bishops of each of the respective Jurisdictions."

The secretary of the Judicial Council received the following from E. L. Jorns, secretary of the 1960 South Central Jurisdictional Conference:

"The following request was given at the South Central Jurisdictional Conference meeting in San Antonio, Texas, June 22-26, 1960, as recorded on page 235 of the South Central Jurisdictional Journal.

We recommend that the Jurisdictional Conference request the Judicial Council for a declaratory decision as to the constitutionality of the 1960 legislation concerning the selection of members of the General Board of Pensions, which seems to deprive the Jurisdictional Conferences of their right of choosing members of General Boards as set forth in Paragraph 15, Article V, Section 3 of the Constitution of The Methodist Church.

Under Paragraph 914 (4) of the 1960 Discipline, the request of the South Central Jurisdictional Conference is properly before the Judicial Council.

Analysis

The sole question raised by this request for a declaratory decision coming to us from the South Central Jurisdiction is whether the legislation of the 1960 General Conference providing that the election by the General Conference of the required number of members of the General Board of Pensions from each of the respective Jurisdictions upon nomination of the Bishops of the respective Jurisdictions deprives the Jurisdictional Conferences of their constitutional power and right of choosing such members of the General Board of Pensions.

The Judicial Council does not decide whether the effect of this legislation is desirable or undesirable, whether it is practical or impractical, or whether any other Boards or Commissions or Agencies do or do not follow the same plan. Nor does the Judicial Council decide whether or not the Jurisdictional Conferences, Jurisdictions, or Jurisdictional Boards MUST have representation on the General Boards. Nor does the Judicial Council decide whether any previous or present practice of any other Board or Agency was constitutional or unconstitutional. The SOLE question now before the Judicial Council is as to the constitutionality of the specific legislation of the 1960 General Conference (Paragraph 1602, Discipline, 1960) providing that, in the composition of the General Board of Pensions, "The required number of members from each Jurisdiction shall be elected quadrennially by THE GENERAL CONFERENCE upon nomination by the College of Bishops of each of the respective Jurisdictions." (Emphasis ours.)

The legislation in question (Paragraph 1602) provides as follows:

"Paragraph 1602. 1. The board shall be composed of one bishop, elected by the Council of Bishops and two ministers and two laymen from each jurisdiction having three million members, or major fraction thereof, in the jurisdiction; provided, however, that there shall be at least one minister and one layman from each jurisdiction. . . . In addition there shall be six members at large, not more than two from the same jurisdiction, nominated and elected by the board in such manner as it shall provide in its by-laws. The general secretary of the board shall be an ex-officio member thereof without vote."

The legislation provides that the member from the Council of Bishops shall be elected by the Council of Bishops; that the members at large shall be nominated and elected by the General Board of Pensions; and that "The required number of members from each Jurisdiction shall be elected quadrennially by the General Conference upon nomination of the College of Bishops of that Jurisdiction." (Emphasis ours.)

The Constitution provides (Paragraph 8, Article IV, Section 8) "The General Conference shall have full legislative power over all matters distinctively connectional, and in the exercise of said powers shall have authority as follows: . . . To initiate and to direct all connectional enterprises of the church, such as publishing, evangelistic, educational, missionary, and benevolent, and to provide boards for their promotion and cultivation."

The granting to the General Conference of the power to "provide" boards must be construed in connection with the other provisions of the Constitution, and cannot be construed to give the General Conference the authority to bypass or disregard other provisions of the Constitution, to wit:

Paragraph 15, Article V, Section 3 of the Constitution, "Each Jurisdictional Conference shall have the following powers and duties and such others as may be conferred by the General Conference. . . . To establish and constitute Jurisdictional Conference Boards as auxiliary to the General Boards of the church as the need may appear, and to CHOOSE THEIR REPRESENTATIVE ON THE GENERAL BOARDS IN SUCH MANNER AS THE GENERAL CONFERENCE MAY DETERMINE." (Emphasis ours.)

The authority granted by the Constitution to the General Conference (Paragraph 8) "to have full legislative powers over all matters distinctively connectional" must be exercised within the framework of the Constitution itself. Paragraph 8 does not grant the General Conference the power to act in conflict with other provisions of the Constitution in exercising its right and duty to "provide" boards.

The Constitution clearly intends that the Jurisdictional Conferences shall have certain rights and duties (Paragraph 15, Article V) and that among these powers and duties is

(Paragraph 15, Article V, Section 3) ". . . to choose their representatives on the general boards in such manner as the General Conference may determine." (Emphasis ours.)

The clear and specific power and duty of the Jurisdictional Conferences to "choose their representatives on the General Boards" occurs in the same Paragraph and Article of the Constitution. (Paragraph 15, Article V) as does the power and duty of the Jurisdictional Conferences "to elect bishops and to cooperate in carrying out such plans for their support as may be determined by the General Conference." It would be strange indeed if the Constitution means what it says in one sentence and does not mean it in the next.

The legislation in question provides that the respective Jurisdictions shall have a prescribed number of members on the General Board of Pensions but it violates the constitutional right of the Jurisdictional Conferences to choose their members on the General Board of Pensions. Even though the legislation provides that the nominations be made by the College of Bishops of each of the respective Jurisdictions to the General Conference, it does not fulfill the constitutional requirement that such representatives be chosen by the respective Jurisdictional Conferences. The Bishops of The Methodist Church in a given Jurisdiction are not a Jurisdictional Conference.

We do not decide the question as to the power of the General Conference to prescribe the manner in which the Jurisdictional Conferences choose the members from each Jurisdiction on the General Board of Pensions. We decide only that the choosing of such required members from the Jurisdictions be done by the respective Jurisdictional Conferences.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that the act of the General Conference providing that the election to the General Board of Pensions of "the required number of members from each Jurisdiction shall be elected quadrennially by the General Conference upon nomination by the College of Bishops of the respective Jurisdictions" is unconstitutional.

INDEX OF ANNUAL CONFERENCE MINISTERIAL MEMBERS

The following is a list of the Conference Members including Probationers, whose present relation to the Church is recorded in this volume. The figure before each name represents the year in which the person was received into full Membership. Where the figure is omitted there is a question about the exact year and the matter is being investigated. The star (★) indicates that the name will not appear in the General Minutes next year, the person having been removed by death, discontinuance, location, withdrawal, or expulsion. Boldface type indicates that the preacher is retired. The superior figure in the page number is the column in which the name appears. The editor of the General Minutes will appreciate information which will increase the completeness and accuracy of this record. Address him, The Research and Statistics Dept., 1200 Davis St., Evanston, Ill.
